

MEMBER COMPANY

This certifies that

TECHNOGRAFIA

is a member of the Globalization and Localization Association (GALA).

Allison Ferch
Executive Director

The Globalization and Localization Association (GALA) serves an international community of organizations and individuals that enable communication and business across languages and cultures. GALA's mission is to help our members succeed and to drive our industry's development by building professional communities, sharing knowledge, and advancing best practices in the globalization sector.